QUB radio Takes Home 3 Canadian Podcast Awards

MONTREAL, Monday, February 25, 2019 – QUB radio, Quebecor’s digital radio, is pleased to announce that three of its podcasts were honoured at the Canadian Podcast Awards in Toronto, an event that recognizes Canada’s very best productions in this genre.

The series Pèse sur start won in the Games & Hobbies Series category, with awards going to Kazzie Charbonneau, Christine Lemus, André Péloquin and Philippe Séguin.

In the Music Series category, Elise Jetté, Philippe Melbourne-Dufour, André Péloquin, Stéphane Plante and Frederic Poirier were winners for the series Question de feeling par Disque dur.

The series Synthèses won the award for Original Music and Lyrics for a Series. Congratulations to composer Francis Faubert, and his collaborators Julien Morissette and Steven Boivin.

And finally, the series En 5 minutes was nominated in the Science and Medecine Series category.

“This demonstrates once again that podcasts are a growing phenomenon,” comments Jean-Nicolas Gagné, General Manager at QUB radio. “In terms of French-language content, our many original series are satisfying a demand for variety and quality. We’re delighted with these wins, and these awards motivate us to keep offering quality content.”

QUB radio offers live radio programming, as well as a wide range of podcast series covering a variety of topics, including comedy, music, video games, science, sports, cars, criminal investigations and life stories. QUB radio is an innovative audio project positioning Quebecor as a digital media leader in Canada. Podcasts are available on the QUB radio app, online at www.qub.radio, and on several other broadcast platforms such as iTunes, Spotify, TuneIn, Google Podcasts, Google Play and Stitcher.
